

Advocacy Guide

The King Day of Service is more than just about doing, it is also about learning and making your voice heard. One way to do this is to assemble a project that brings about community members learning who their representatives are, what they stand for and speaking up about what is important to you. We hope you find this guide helpful!

Who are your representatives?

	Name of Rep. / Communication Contact	Position
Local:	_____ / _____	Mayor
	_____ / _____	District Attorney
	_____ / _____	City Councilor
State:	_____ / _____	State Representative
	_____ / _____	Attorney General
	_____ / _____	State Senator
Federal:	_____ / _____	U.S. Senator
	_____ / _____	U.S. House
	_____ / _____	President of United States

Knowing who represents you is step 1, however step 2 is knowing what they stand for What do my leaders stand for?

My _____ (Position Name) _____ (Name of Leader) has served me for _____ (time served). Prior to me doing my research about them, I knew that they

My overall impression of them was _____ because _____.

After completing my research I found that they are a proponent of _____,

_____, _____ and _____. I _____

(agree/disagree) with these positions because

_____. If I had the opportunity to talk one-on-one with them about their positions, I would say

Step 3 is Speaking Up!

Tell leaders who you are and what you stand for?

 Acknowledge that you followed up about your position and you noticed what they have done.
